COMMENTS

February 9th, 2016 Annies is executing a voluntary product withdrawal involving Annies Bunny Grahams. This is an expansion of the withdrawal that took place on December 21, 2015 on select code dates.

In the abundance of caution, we are proactively removing additional product. The quality issue is driven by the whole grain wheat flour which was exposed to high temperatures and, because we do not use synthetic preservatives, the oil in the flour may have gone rancid.

This is not a food safety issue.
