COMMENTS

We did not ship Bozzutos any of the batch codes for this voluntary recall

The production facility that produces Gerber® Organic 2nd Foods Pouches® had an equipment issue during manufacturing on two specific batches that may have resulted in packaging for some of the pouches to be susceptible to damage during transportation and handling.

Consumers may notice that, in some cases, the pouches are bloated and product inside may have an off taste or odor. This recall does not impact any other Gerber pouches or other Gerber products.

Consumers who purchased pouches with the above UPCs, batch codes and expiration dates should not use the products
