COMMENTS

Deoleo USA, Inc is voluntarily withdrawing specific sizes of Bertolli® and Carapelli® Extra Light Tasting and Bertolli Classico Pure Olive Oil because we have reason to believe that the products may have prematurely spoiled. Specifically, our investigation to date reveals that the oil has prematurely oxidized, causing potential off odor and taste, which presents a quality but not health issue. We have identified the source of problem with one of our refining suppliers and have taken immediate corrective action.

This voluntary market withdrawal has been initiated as a precautionary measure. The products involved in this market withdrawal were distributed in the U.S. from January, 2015 thru May, 2015.
