COMMENTS

As part of the recent Nestle USA voluntary recall due to the potential presence of foreign material, Nestle Professional has one affected SKU - Nestle Professional Stouffer's Vegetable Lasagna..

Nestle Professional is taking this action out of an abundance of caution after several consumers reported finding small pieces of glass in retail products using the affected ingredient. No injuries have been reported. Nestle is investigating the source of the foreign material. Although our investigation is ongoing, we believe the source of the glass is spinach that was an ingredient used in this product.
